REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art including Peterson (US pat. #5,845,227) discloses determination of elapsed times, distances traveled and instantaneous and average speed/velocity of a mobile unit using cellular hand-offs for calculating traffic flow, and determination of location using cellular hand-offs, but not the determination of elapsed time and location of a mobile device and their storage using cellular hand-offs in calculating an approximate location of the mobile device in a recurrent route or training a mobile device location identification system in the manner claimed, which in essence is pertaining to using cellular hand-off for location approximation, and elapsed time for further location extrapolation based on stored data in calculating an approximate location of the mobile device in a recurrent route or training a mobile device location identification system.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
